Art Unit: 3654

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claims 15-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Brown et al (US-5749538) in view of McCarthy (US-4098469).

Brown et al discloses an apparatus having substantially all the claimed features including housing 38, end walls 44, mandrel arms 14/18, and mandrels 22. In their movement, the free ends of the mandrels move in a direction toward the respective end wall. What is not disclosed is a slideable door. McCarthy discloses another dispenser in which a slideable door 16 which slides in four directions (up/down and backwards/forwards) is provided at the opening, note at least the "stops" provided by the pivots. It would have been obvious to a person having ordinary skill in the art to provide the apparatus of Brown et al with a slideable door as taught by McCarthy to open ("first door position") and close ("second door position") the opening to keep out dust. It should be noted that, as modified, all elements including the door engage each other.

Claims 1-14, 17-20 are allowed.

Applicant's arguments filed 1/4/06 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

The door of McCarthy is deemed to slide as recited in claim 15.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
